HERBERT WOODS MARINA, POTTER HEIGHAM

- Freehold mooring plot measuring 46ft x 14ft
- Gated, secure and private mooring
- Electricity and water
- Private parking area

A private and secure stern-on marina mooring measuring 46ft x 14ft with electricity, water and parking provided in the highly regarded Herbert Woods Marina, just off the River Thurne.

The site is accessed via an electronic security barrier with a car park, picnic area, toilets and showers on site.

Electricity is supplied via a card operated smart meter and water via a smart tap. Wifi is available via separate arrangement with the marina.

LOCATION

The Herbert Woods Marina is set at the very heart of the Norfolk Broads in the popular village of Potter Heigham, well know for the medieval bridge, thought to date back to 1385, and Lathams, the biggest discount store on the Broads. The village also benefits from two pubs, a coffee shop, tea room/restaurant, large fishing tackle shop, a Post Office / general store and a fish and chip shop.

There is access to the entire Broads network via the River Thurne, leading to Hickling, Ludham, Horning, Wroxham and beyond.

HERBERT WOODS MARINA

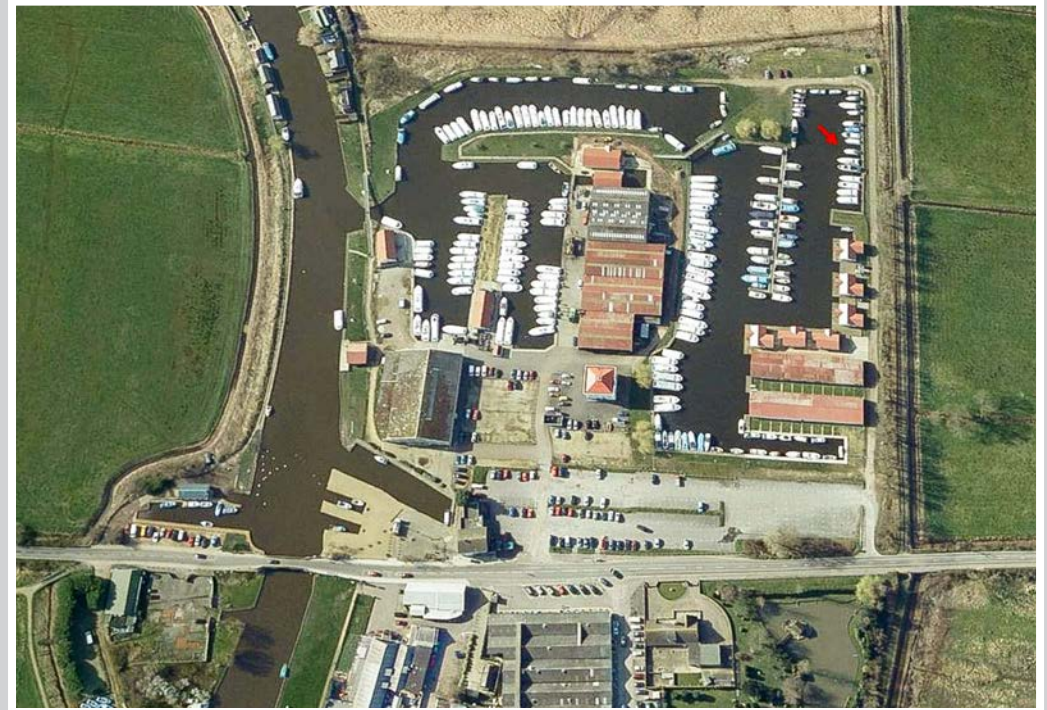

Herbert Woods Marina offers the full range of boatyard facilities including pump out, refuelling, gas, crantage with fully qualified marine engineers, and boat builders on site to help meet all servicing and repair needs, along with an upholstery shop.
